The East Cobb Astros from Marietta, Georgia further established themselves as the "Kings of CABA" by winning their 4th consecutive title in herculean fashion. CABA Hall of Fame Coach Dennis Jordan's squad rebounded from an astounding 9-0 loss to NorCal Baseball of California on Saturday night to rally and beat the Summit City Sluggers (Indiana) in a Sunday morning elimination game, and then returned the slaughter rule by defeating NorCal 14-4, forcing a third game, winner take all, championship vs NorCal. In the first inning, NorCal opened with back to back to back HR's, yet East Cobb battled back with a seven run fifth inning. Coach Rob Bruno's NorCal team answered with four runs in the bottom of the inning, yet East Cobb hung on to win 14-9 in a tremendous championship contest considered by most to have been the absolute Dream Game, featuring the two most heralded programs in the entire country, and held on the Dream Field in Woodstock, Illinois. It was a definite ESPN Classic with the class of the country playing in this premiere event!
