

CBHS Brothers From Memphis, Tennessee
 WIN First Continental Amateur Baseball Association
 17 and Under Age Division (Wood Bat) World Series
 Held in Millington, Tennessee

USA Stadium
 Millington, Tenn.

John Weirich from the CBHS Brothers turned in a remarkable pitching performance in the championship game of the High School Wood Bat World Series in Millington, Tennessee. He threw a complete game "No-Hitter against the East Cobb Astros." This was the first championship no-hitter in USA Stadium History. CBHS made all of the plays behind him, but Weirich was in complete control all the way," said Buster Kelso, coach of CBHS. The final score was 4 – 0. Taylor Mathews had two hits to lead the Brothers and win the batting crown with a .695 ave.
