The Dayton Dodgers win the 18u Aluminum Bat CABA World Series in Struthers, Ohio by beating the Summit City Sluggers by a score of 4-0. They would get more than enough runs for Issac Hersberger when they scored two runs in the bottom of the first. The inning started with a single by leadoff hitter Daniel Holtzman. Ian Huss would then triple to knock in Holtzman. Huss would score on a ground out off the bat of Brandon Brainigan. Issac cruised through seven innings and allowed just 5 hits with the help of two pick-offs and have two double plays turned behind him, The Dodgers would also add two runs in the 4th. For the Summit City Sluggers, Jake Renkenberger would go 1 for 3 to earn the Batting Championship of the CABA World Series. The Dayton Dodgers were led by tournament Roger Tremaine Most Valuable Player Daniel Holtzman going 3 for 3.
